"A unique blend of high-tech and adventure-game technology, the developer-driven storyline and action-packed adventure have been handed excellent production values. " Pulsetense Games' debut iOS title, Solarix, is now officially available on iTunes for $4.99. Solarix is both a haunting sci-fi horror adventure and a gripping action-puzzle game, which challenge your brain, your reflexes and your physical abilities. In the year 2050, mysterious solar flares have left Earth uninhabitable. In an attempt to save the planet, a crew of scientists is sent to the moon with a powerful new weapon: a gravitational anomaly stabilizer called Jaldi. Arriving in one piece, the team discovers the anomaly to be a living entity, in fact more than a million years old. Taken by surprise, the crew is attacked, and their rescuers turn to Earth. Centuries later, you are part of a team of space cadets trying to save the planet from a mutant primordial force. The stakes are high, and the only way you can survive is to enter the ancient anomaly, using your time-travelling ship with Jaldi called Solarix. When you step inside, you wake up thousands of years in the future... An action-packed puzzle platforming game, Solarix takes place in a world that combines the classic sci-fi/horror genre with new and engaging gameplay mechanics. You play as a young guy tasked with saving the world – an impossible task – in a story written by a team of indie artists. In Solarix, you play as an astronaut sent in space to recover Jaldi, an ancient artificial intelligence, placed in the centre of a gravitational anomaly. There, in a desolate solar system where no life survives, you will have to: Enter the abnormality to rescue Jaldi Explore The different levels, while discovering puzzles that will bring you to your goal Master the use of Jaldi's special abilities to overcome difficulties and save the world Use Jaldi's powerful time travel abilities to solve each puzzle Maze, puzzle, jump, and push every obstacle out of your way The app features the most impressive gameplay and graphics that are only available on mobile, including: 3D graphics with support for iPhone5/5s and iPad4/iPad mini A cinematic soundtrack

The game will support 4 players on one machine. Main features: 2 new levels (and 4 others from the original Hack'em All game) We have retested all of the original levels New retouched graphics Saving and loading new levels New soundtrack, voice-overs Updated interface with a new look New achievements The entire game in high definition In-game online ranking system will be updated with new achievements Network multiplayer game in the Hacking Single Player Mode The game is aimed at both experienced and new players More than 80 new puzzles Explanation of each puzzle When you arrive at the briefing room, it will give a bit of information about the game: the the current computer race, how strong are your opponents, how many levels do you still need to solve in this game. Note: there are no additional game modes NOTE: The game is available only for Windows.TORONTO – Mainly due to the fact that he's not there, Toronto FC's Sebastian Giovinco received a mixed reaction from the crowd during the first half of Saturday's home opener. The Italian playmaker opened his MLS season with a brace, starting with the opening goal inside the opening minute and completing his scoring with the game's first red card five minutes later. But with Columbus Crew coach Gregg Berhalter out with a hamstring injury and former Toronto standout Jerome LaGaita in net for the home side, Giovinco wasn't the busiest of players. And that, according to a number of players, was part of the attraction for TFC head coach Greg Vanney. "He's not the same player," Vanney said of Giovinco following Toronto's 2-2 draw with Columbus. "He's not the same player who is going to come in here every single weekend and be as effective as he was last year, but he's going to c9d1549cdd

Dino Scourge (sometimes attributed as Dino Souls and Isan) is the flagship title of Konami's Godzilla series. It is a spin-off from the [2011 video game] "Dino Crisis: September Dawn". There has been American merchandising for "Dino Crisis". There are also Russian comics. Story 3025 AD Dino Crisis is a prehistoric city located in the Kanto Area near a volcano named Mount Megd. Recently, humans have started developing newly-discovered powers such as telekinesis and pyrokinesis. Soon, the authorities ask for help from M.U.T.O.G.I.D (Massive Unified Transcendent Organization Group-Interdisciplinary Discovery) personnel to exterminate the existence of monsters with the suggestion that these new powers are being developed due to crossbreeding, thus resulting in the hostile attitude of the monsters. The founding M.U.T.O.G.I.D science department, DIAC, is headquartered in a skyscraper deep underground, where they began the search for monsters. The humans have also created their counterpart of M.U.T.O.G.I.D.s, the GTEM (Godzilla, Terror of Mechagodzilla, MOTHRA, Mecha MOTHRA) forces, to fight with the monsters. Also some monsters are members of the enigmatic Black Angels, who regard humans as enemies. A certain unit within DIAC, Expedition 2, is actually a mission to travel to an ancient city called Kyushu to seek out monsters from the Ice Age period. However, once there, everything changes. Founded in 3025 AD, the city has endured numerous various attacks from monsters over the centuries. This led the civilian scientists to develop new types of military equipment, such as mechas, to defend against the monster attacks. Such model equipment includes mounted firearms and reactors able to generate large amounts of electricity. When an on-site inspection of the experiments for the new weapon, the Exodus Project, was conducted and inadvertently released a new monster in the city called Outbreak. Although the Exodus Project had only created bio-mechanical life forms known as crossbreeds due to their ability to breed with extinct dinosaurs, it is actually a major rival of DIAC's Dr. Walter Souda, head of the DIAC Science Department. One day, an Earthquake causes a chaos to destroy much
