WPF shows "The best way to do this is..." in Spanish, as a feature of WPF to differentiate it from other frameworks. I always thought this was an odd statement since not many non-Spanish speaking people want their programs to look different from other programs. In fact, I changed the string to "The best way to do this is..." to fix it. Thanks for the correction, you saved me from myself. Show HN: HackHands, online hand-drawing and painting competition - kos_miklas ===== johnsutter1 I find it a bit off-putting to have a random hand in my screenshot. I'm also not sure why it would be illegal for someone to use a hand that's used in other works. (If it's a famous hand.) ~~~ kos_miklas Thanks, maybe next time I'll do some work on the background image. Regarding the legal side: the hand was taken from the movie "Shazam" and the associated video. The hand is also used in many other movies and tv-series and it is actually the standard model of the hand in most films. Regarding the "off-putting" part: yeah, I do understand this, but what could I do about it? ~~~ jcr A more appropriate license might be "public domain" or "Creative Commons Attribution" type of license. ~~~ kos_miklas I didn't check the license, but this is what I was thinking: ----- ohgodimit I hope you can add more frames per second.
